Small enough to be affordable, large enough for horses, the highlight of this ranch is its excellent grass production and excellent water.

Water is provided by a submergible well at the house and a solar well on the North end property.

The beautiful views begin with Capulin Mountain to the North...

Beautiful prairie all around and Majestic views of Palo Blanco Mountain, Piney Mountain, Laughlin Peak & Kiowa Mesa to the West...

And incredible Sierra Grande Mountain to the East...

The original homesteader's home on this property is in the middle of a complete remodel. Many of the major elements are near completion - from the foundation to the new roof, exterior walls and windows, insulation, plumbing, and electric... The remodel is well underway.

Parts of the home - 3 bedrooms and a bath - are basically finished... The rest is ready for you to transform into your dream home. Tongue and groove ceilings in part of the home and wood floors throughout are a beautiful start.

Consider finishing the upstairs with a master suite... And the downstairs with the kitchen and living area... Utilize the small basement for easy access to plumbing and heating.

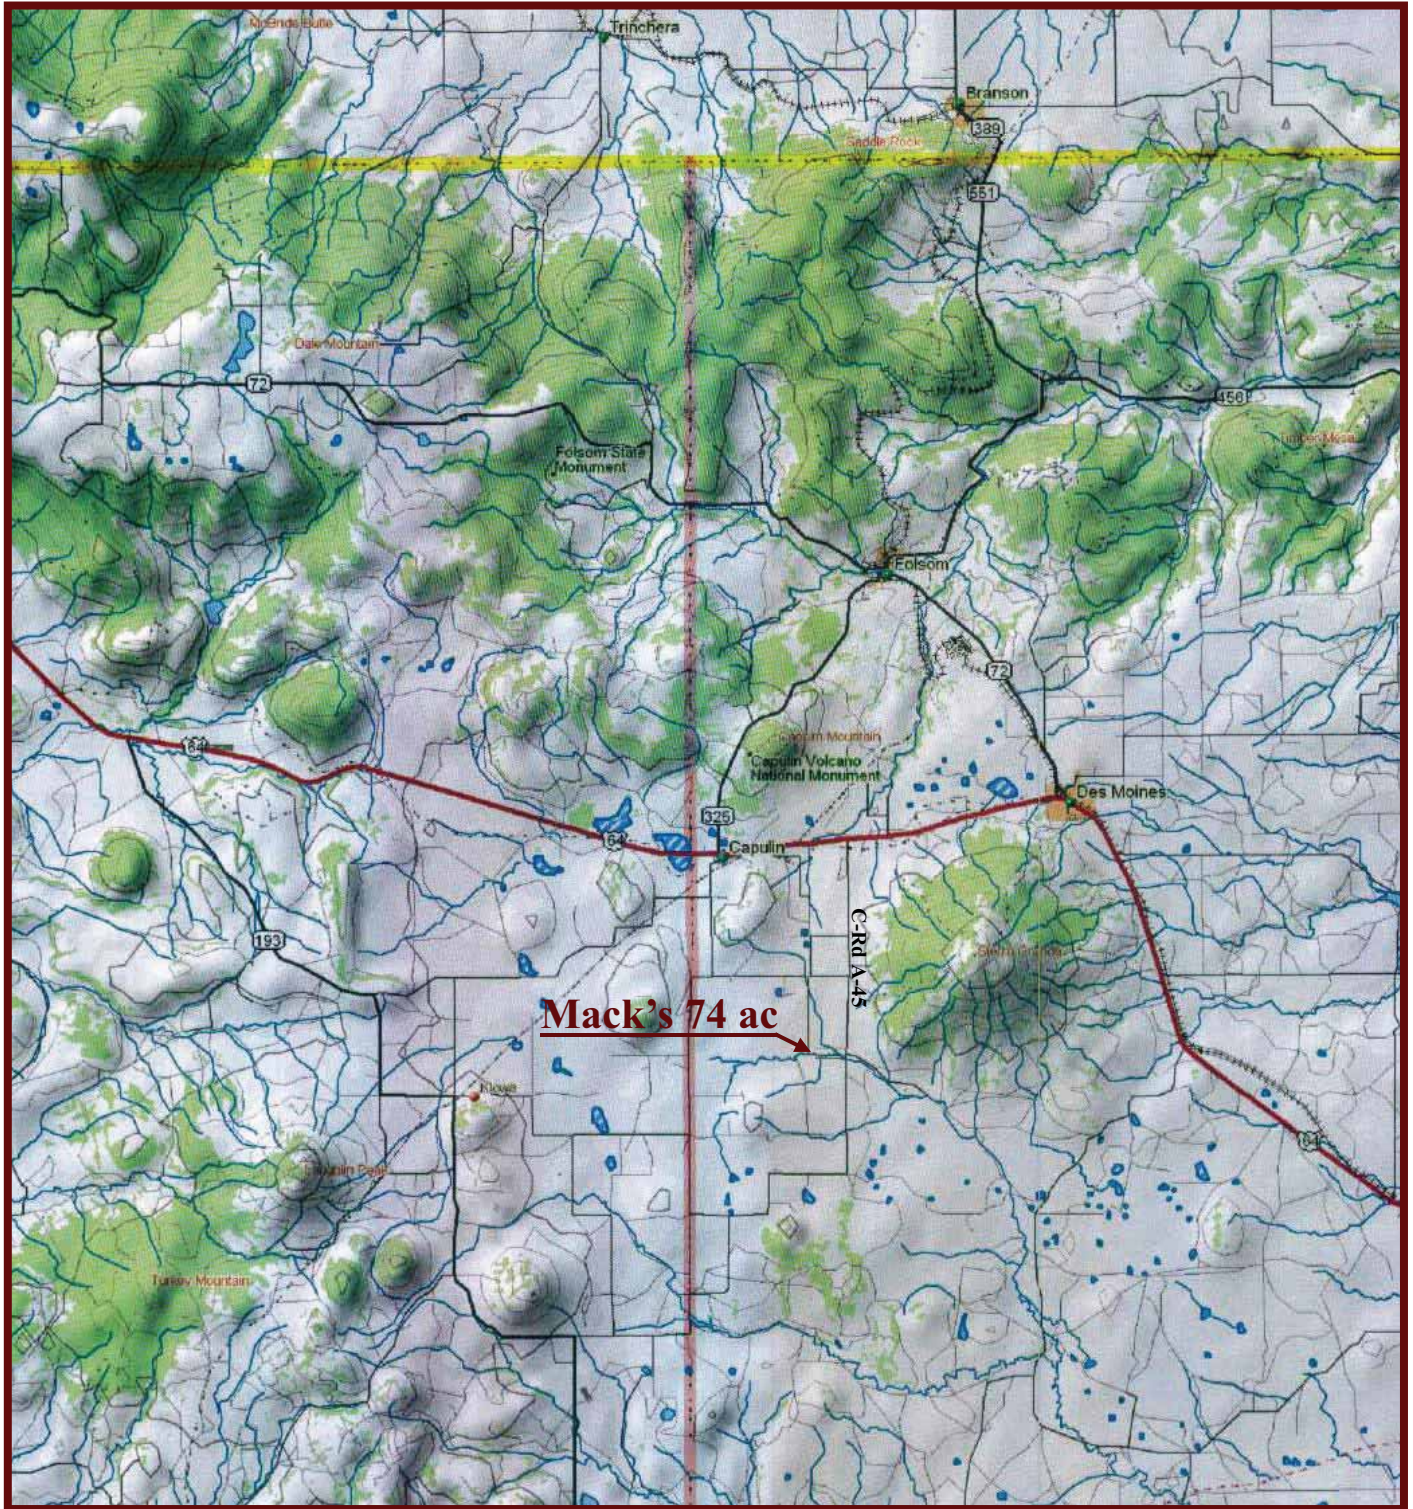

Properties of this size and quality are hard to come by. Take advantage of it and make it your own...
